

Biography

Dara P. Kargari
Vice President, Finance

Dara Kargari has an extensive background in financial management, having spent 6 of his 12 years in the accounting profession as Controller. Throughout his career, Mr. Kargari has demonstrated an outstanding ability to coordinate and direct all phases of both recurring and project based accounting efforts. Most recently in early 2008, First American Corporation retained Mr. Kargari as a consultant to help facilitate the spinoff of its Financial Services Companies. Before consulting with First American, Mr. Kargari served as Controller for the retail division of Nationwide Auction Systems, where he implemented cost cutting strategies that reduced the company's net loss by $5 million. Prior to this, Mr. Kargari held numerous positions in Accounting and Finance, and was responsible for financial and regulatory audit compliance, Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, month-end close and day-to-day financial operations. Mr. Kargari started his career as a Senior Auditor at Deloitte & Touche, LLP in Los Angeles in the Manufacturing and Technology practice.

Mr. Kargari received his BS in Business Administration, with a major in Accounting, from California State University, Northridge. He is also a Certified Public Accountant.